16 as individuals;

17 Plaintiff,

18 vs.

19 Kenneth A. Jowdy, an individual; and DOES
20 1 through 100, inclusive,

21 Defendants.

22 Plaintiffs complain and allege as follows:

23 1. Plaintiffs Greg deVries, Jason Woolley, Chris Simon, Mattias Norstrom, Vladimir
24 Tsypakov, Jay McKee, Raymond Murray, Glen Murray, Bryan Berard, Darryl Sydor, 25 Dimitri Khristich, Sergei Gonchar, Michael Peca and Jozef Stumpel ("Plaintiffs") are, 26 and at all times mentioned in this complaint individuals resided throughout the United 27 States and Canada. They all transacted business and were solicited by the defendant who 28 operated his real estate investment business in Los Angeles County in the State of 1 California.

2 2. Plaintiffs is informed and believes, and thereon alleges, Defendant KENNETH A.
3 JOWDY ("JOWDY") is, and at all times mentioned in this complaint was, an individual
4 operating investment businesses in Los Angeles County in the State of California.

5 Specifically, JOWDY solicited professional hockey players and baseball players to invest
6 in land deals and then failed to execute even the most fundamental elements of a business
7 or development plan. JOWDY used the Southern California region as one of his hubs of 8 business operations.

9 3. Plaintiffs are ignorant of the true names and capacities of the Defendants sued herein as 10 DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, and therefore sues these Defendants by such fictitious
11 names. Plaintiffs will amend this Complaint to allege their true names and capacities
12 when the same have been ascertained. Plaintiffs are informed and believe and on that 13 basis allege, that DOES 1 through 100, inclusive, are responsible in some manner for the 14 damages suffered by Plaintiffs alleged herein.

15 4. Plaintiffs are informed and believe, and thereon allege, that at all times mentioned herein, 16 each defendant herein conspired together, aided and/or abetted, operated and acted as the 17 agent partner, joint venturer, associate and/or representatives of each other (i.e. the other 18 defendants), and in doing he acts herein alleged, acted within the course and scope of 19 their authority as agents and/or representative, and with the knowledge, approval,
20 permission and consent of the other defendants.

21 5. JOWDY operated businesses at the following addresses in the Southern California area:
22 420 21st Street, Manhattan Beach, CA 90266; 5541 La Jolla Mesa Drive, La Jolla, CA
23 92037; 3333 East Spring Street, Long Beach, CA 90806.

24 6. The Plaintiffs, all professional hockey players who were players in good standing in the

1 National Hockey League and invested various amounts with JOWDY, controlled entities
2 that held ownership in U.S. LLCs, which held ownership in another U.S. LLC, which 3 held ownership in a Mexican corporation, which owns beach front property in Cabo San 4 Lucas, Mexico.

5
6 7. Specifically, Plaintiffs Jason Woolley and Dimitri Khristich invested in Baja
7 Management, LLC, which owns 10% of Diamante Del Mar, LLC, which owns the 8 property. The remaining twelve (12) Plaintiffs invested directly in Diamante Del Mar,
9 LLC, which owns the property. The Plaintiffs invested as follows:

10 A. $500,000 Dimitri Khristich
11 B. $500,000 Vladimir Tsyplakov
12 C. $500,000 Bryan Berard
13 D. $500,000 Michael Peca
14 E. $500,000 Chris Simon
15 F. $250,000 Jason Woolley
16 G. $500,000 Ethan Moreau¹
17 H. $500,000 Greg deVries
18 I. $500,000 Jozef Stumpel
19 J. $500,000 Sergei Gonchar
20 K. $500,000 Owen Nolan²
21 L. $500,000 Mattias Norstrom
22 M. $500,000 Darryl Sydor
23 N. $500,000 Raymond Murray

27
28 ¹ Not a named plaintiff.

² Not a named plaintiff.

1 O. $500,000 Glen Murray

2 P. $500,000 Jay McKee

3 Q. $500,000 Joe Juneau³

4 8. To manage these investments, JOWDY was a paid three hundred fifty thousand dollar
5 yearly salary ($350,000.00), plus all travel and entertainment expenses, to be the steward
6 of the Plaintiffs' capital. Plaintiffs allege JOWDY completely mismanaged the project
7 from day one. He acted as the sole developer as well as the sole manager of the 8 investment entity, but over a three (3) year period he did not produce even the most 9 fundamental elements of a master plan development such as engineering drawings or 10 preliminary utility infrastructure. Nevertheless, he and his employees, whom consisted 11 primarily of childhood friends with no development experience whatsoever, spent over 12 ten million dollars ($10,000,000.00) over said seven (7) year period. The sole element of 13 construction that JOWDY did facilitate, almost immediately after acquiring the property 14 and some initial investor capital, was a 6000 ft. concrete runway which was built and 15 used for the express purpose of landing the Diamante branded airplanes on the property
16 to impress potential investors in order to convince them to invest money in the project.
17 Other than the runway, no further development whatsoever has taken place since 2003.
18

20 9. JOWDY promised the Plaintiffs, and other investors, that two (2) 18 hole golf courses
21 would be built on the property and that each investor would be a Founding Member of 22 the Diamante Del Mar Golf Club and Resort. Additionally, JOWDY promised each
23 Founding Member an interest in the form of a fractional ownership in the Private
24 Residence Club, as well as a six figure credit towards a Home Site Lot in the Diamante
25 Del Mar Resort, upon which each Founding Member may build a home. To date, none of 26
27

28 ³ Not a named plaintiff.

1 these elements of the project have even begun to be developed, even though they were
2 expressly promised. JOWDY has since effectively abandoned this project to the prejudice
3 of the Plaintiffs and has moved on to raising new investment capital for several other
4 similar, but unrelated projects, in the U.S. and Mexico through his parent golf
5 development company Legacy Properties.

6
7 10. Several years after Plaintiffs invested in the project, JOWDY acquired a three million
8 dollar ($3,000,000.00) loan from a high interest/fee "hard money" lender and used the 9 property as collateral without the knowledge or consent of the investors. Moreover, the 10 three million dollars ($3,000,000) has not been invested in the property and the location
11 and utilization of these proceeds is still unknown. The property remains encumbered by 12 said loan.

13
14 11. Bill Najam (a non-practicing attorney), who is JOWDY'S brother in law, was also paid a 15 salary in excess of one hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) per year plus all
16 travel and entertainment expenses. His role in the company and his related business
17 activities have yet to be identified. Mr. Najam spent no more than a couple of weeks
18 (collectively) on property over the last seven (7) years. Mr. Najam, was in charge of the 19 corporate governance and while under JOWDY's direction and control, received over 20 eight million dollars ($8,000,000.00) from a LLC in Hawaii. Mr. Najam failed to 21 properly account for those funds and has placed the JOWDY investors in a vulnerable
22 and compromised position.

23 Hawaii loans...

24 12. Ken Ayers (the sole Project Construction Manager), was paid a salary, in excess of one 25 hundred fifty thousand dollars ($150,000.00) per year yet spent a grand total of less than 26 ten (10) days on property (collectively) over a seven (7) year period. At one point late 27 last year, he asked a fellow employee how to dial Mexico from his office in CA. He was

1 also employed full-time by the Bridges in Rancho Santa Fe, CA during his entire tenure
2 at Diamante Del Mar and continues to be employed by the Bridges and most likely by 3 Diamante and Legacy Properties (JOWDY's Parent Company) simultaneously.

4 13. JOWDY frequently spent hundreds of thousands of dollars from the company's accounts,
5 as well as used company resources such as private jets which were purchased with 6 investors' money, (some of whom are Plaintiffs in this case) to entertain JOWDY's close
7 personal friends; Roger Clemens, Reggie Jackson, Joe Morgan, and Pete Rose (to name a 8 few), under the guise that these individuals would eventually purchase real estate in the 9 development. However, Clemens and even his wife were vocal and adamant that they 10 would never purchase property in the development. When asked about their interest in 11 the project, other professional athlete/friends of JOWDY's who JOWDY entertained in a 12 similar extravagant fashion, stated openly that they were not buyers either. Nevertheless,
13 they all continued to accept gratuitous extravagant private air travel, five star hotel
14 accommodations, luxury home rentals, unlimited food and beverage expenses, golf
15 tournaments and lavish parties, several times per year over a three year period, all
16 orchestrated by JOWDY and paid for using the Plaintiffs' investment capital.
17

19 14. JOWDY was solely responsible for inviting these individuals and was also responsible 20 for arranging for various female porn stars, escorts, strippers, party girls and other 21 women to attend these functions, again all paid for by the company. Clemens in 22 particular, was a regular participant in these activities and Adrian Moore (one of the 23 female attendees who was close to Clemens) was later hired by JOWDY, and employed
24 by Diamante, as JOWDY's personal assistant as a personal favor to Clemens.
25

27 15. JOWDY and childhood friend Mark Thalman , who was represented as being a pilot and 28 a self proclaimed aviation expert, purchased three (3) Airplanes using the Plaintiffs'

1 business manager Philip A. Kenner's and various National Hockey League Players'
2 (Kenner's clients) money through an entity named Diamante Air,LLC. JOWDY and 3 Thalman misappropriated and/or lost over two million dollars ($2,000,000.00) of 4 investors' money through this entity and through the misuse of the airplanes. JOWDY
5 and Thalman have since defaulted on the two loans for the airplanes, which were 6 guaranteed by Phil Kenner and Plaintiff Sergei Gonchar. The airplanes have since been 7 repossessed by 1st Source Bank. Until recently when Kenner and Gonchar reached a
8 settlement at their considerable expense, Kenner and Gonchar were defending a lawsuit
9 filed by the bank for their personal guarantee as a result of JOWDY's and Thalman's
10 negligent management of this entity. JOWDY and Thalman were the managing members
11 of this entity and Kenner and his clients (including some of the Plaintiffs) are filing a 12 lawsuit against JOWDY and Thalman regarding this entity. As a result of Kenner making
13 Jowdy and Thalmann aware of the imminent filing of a complaint, JOWDY has produced
14 a document with only his signature on it, and now suggests that Kenner is also a 15 Managing Member of this entity and is therefore also responsible for its demise.
16 JOWDY constantly used the airplanes to fly himself and various friend/employees, as 17 well as several of the aforementioned professional athletes and female companions to 18 Cabo San Lucas Mexico, El Rosario Mexico, Palm Springs, CA, La Jolla, CA, New York
19 City, NY, and Las Vegas, NV (several times per year for approximately three years)
20 under the guise of company business.
21 JOWDY is the sole managing member of the Diamante Del Mar project. JOWDY is also 22 the sole managing member of the Diamante Cabo San Lucas project in which several of 23 the Plaintiffs have also invested and are filing a similar lawsuit against JOWDY related 24 to this entity. Criminal fraud charges have also been brought against JOWDY and an

1 arrest warrant for JOWDY has been issued in Mexico with respect to the Diamante Cabo
2 San Lucas project.

3 18. JOWDY received funds from various entities. He made no investigation as to the source
4 of those funds or if the sender was authorized to send the funds. He deposited those 5 funds in his personal accounts, accounts of other entities that were not owned by the 6 Plaintiffs, and completely failed to account for these deposits on the books and records of 7 any of his entities. JOWDY has abandoned his role to such a degree that he is not entitled 8 to any corporate safeguards and the fiction created by him of a corporate structure is 9 nothing more than a sham to hide the funds in various entities and individual accounts so
10 they can't be traced by Plaintiffs.
11

12 FIRST CAUSE OF ACTION

13 BREACH OF FIDUCIARY DUTY

14 (Against Defendants JOWDY and DOES 1 to 100)

15 Plaintiffs incorporate and reallege herein paragraphs 1 through 18 above, as if set forth in 16 full.

17 19. JOWDY owed Plaintiffs fiduciary duties resulting from the position of trust and owed
18 them a duty to make true and accurate statements to them.

20. JOWDY owed Plaintiffs fiduciary duties resulting from the position of trust and owed
21 them a duty to make true and accurate statements to them. JOWDY breached that duty by 22 providing misleading, untrue, and inaccurate accounting of the proceeds received, the 23 direction of the development, the time period in which he would complete the project.
24 When in reality, JOWDY had no intention of performing any of his obligations as the 25 sole manager of the project. He lulled the Plaintiffs into not demanding their money back
26 and into believing he was effectively managing the project. It was not until he testified
27
28

1 under oath in an arbitration entitled Nolan vs. Kenner, Case No. 76 148 Y 00223 08
2 DEAR on May 27, 2009, did Plaintiffs fully became aware through their agent the extent
3 of JOWDY's ethical and legal lapses as to their capital. They discovered that their capital
4 accounts were ZERO. They discovered the project was going nowhere. They discovered
5 that JOWDY had spent eight million dollars ($8,000,000.00) of borrowed money from a
6 Delaware LLC, named Little Isle IV, without any accounting by Bill Najam who testified
7 in said arbitration that he was the custodian of records. They discovered that after 8 repeated requests, they would not be provided copies of the books and records to which 9 they were entitled. The only way to view the books and records was to travel to 10 Connecticut even though JOWDY operated out of California when he sold these 11 investments. They discovered that JOWDY had commingled funds in non-corporate 12 accounts, had no intention of going back to develop the project, had aggressively
13 leveraged and encumbered the property with debt., and had run out of money. At no time
14 did they receive warning that JOWDY had spent all of their capital on exorbitant salaries, 15 private parties, junkets, and worthless promotional events. JOWDY instead took all of 16 that corporate opportunity and used it to promote other projects in the United States that 17 were not funded by the Plaintiffs.
18

21 SECOND CAUSE OF ACTION

22 FRAUD

23 (Against Defendants JOWDY and DOES 1 to 100)

24 Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by this reference as though set forth in full at this point,
25 each of the allegations contained in paragraphs 1 through 20 above.

26
27 21. JOWDY owed Plaintiffs fiduciary duties resulting from the position of trust and owed
28 them a duty to make true and accurate statements to them.

1 22. As more fully set forth above, JOWDY intentionally made the following material
2 misrepresentations and omissions of material fact to Plaintiffs and/or their agents:
3
4 1. The project would be completed within three years.
5 2. The Plaintiffs' investment capital was secure.
6 3. The Plaintiffs would see a return of capital within four years.
7 4. The Plaintiffs would receive monthly written updates.
8 5. JOWDY would personally manage the project and be a competent
9 guardian of the Plaintiffs' capital.
10 6. JOWDY would follow appropriate corporate governance.
11 7. JOWDY would make his decisions based upon the business judgment rule
12 and not upon nepotism, favoritism, or other decisions which benefitted
13 himself or his friends and family.
14
15 23. All of these representations were false, they all were made to the Plaintiffs' detriment, 16 Plaintiffs relied on these statements, and Plaintiffs suffered general, special, and 17 exemplary damages as a result. JOWDY's conduct was willful, wanton, and showed a 18 reckless disregard for the truth warranting punitive damages according to proof.
19

20 THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION

21 CONSTRUCTIVE TRUST AND APPOINTMENT OF RECEIVER

22 (Against Defendants JOWDY and DOES 1 to 100)

23 Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by this reference as though set forth in full at this point,
24 each of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 23 above.
25

26 24. As a result of the conduct described above concerning all defendants and the resulting 27 conversion of Plaintiffs' assets, a constructive trust is required to be imposed on all 28 monies or assets which Defendants have in their possession, custody or control to ensure

1 that monies rightfully belonging to plaintiffs are not dissipated.

2 25. In addition, in light of the theft of funds and commingling of assets, the Court should
3 order that all of Defendants' property and holdings be identified to an independent
4 receiver who can take over and manage the assets pending disposition of this litigation.
5

6 FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION

7 UNJUST ENRICHMENT

8 (Against Defendants JOWDY and DOES 1 to 100)

9 Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by this reference as though set forth in full at this point,
10 each of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 25 above.

11 26. As a result of the conduct described above and the resulting conversion of Plaintiffs'
12 assets, JOWDY should be ordered to disgorge all ill gotten gains resulting from the 13 above conduct.
14

15 FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION

16 ACCOUNTING

17 (Against Defendants JOWDY and DOES 1 to 100)

18 Plaintiffs hereby incorporate by this reference as though set forth in full at this point,
19 each of the allegations contained in Paragraphs 1 through 26 above.

20 27. The Plaintiffs are spread out throughout North America and Europe. They are requesting 21 the Court order an immediate accounting prior to trial in this matter setting forth the 22 expenditures authorized by JOWDY.
23

24 WHEREFORE, Plaintiffs demands judgment against Defendants for the following:
25

26 ON THE FIRST AND SECOND CAUSES OF ACTION:

27 1. For general damages in the amount of fifteen million dollars ($15,000,000);
28 2. For punitive damages according to proof;

ON THE THIRD CAUSE OF ACTION:

3. For an imposition of a constructive trust and appointment of a receiver:

ON THE FOURTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

4. For a disgorgement of all proceeds given to Defendants by Plaintiffs:

ON THE FIFTH CAUSE OF ACTION:

5. For an accounting of all proceeds invested.

ON ALL CAUSES OF ACTION:

6. For costs of suit
7. Prejudgment interest;
8. For any such further relief as this Court may deem just and proper in light of the circumstances.

Class Actions

All class actions are initially assigned to Judge Carl J. West in Department 311 of the Central Civil West Courthouse (800 S. Commonwealth Ave., Los Angeles 90005). This assignment is for pretrial purposes and for the purpose of assessing whether or not the case is complex within the meaning of California Rules of Court, rule 3.400. Depending on the outcome of that assessment, the class action case may be reassigned to one of the judges of the Complex Litigation Program or reassigned randomly to a court in the Central District.

LOS ANGELES SUPERIOR COURT
ADR DEPARTMENT

If you have a general jurisdiction case involving one of these subject matter areas:

- commercial
- employment
- medical malpractice
- legal malpractice
- real estate
- trade secrets
- unfair competition
- at judges' discretion

Your case may be eligible for the court's pilot Neutral Evaluation (NE) program.

- ◆ NE can reduce litigation time and costs and promote settlement.
- ◆ NE is an informal process that offers a non-binding evaluation by an experienced neutral lawyer with expertise in the subject matter of the case. After counsel present their claims and defenses, the neutral evaluates the case based on the law and the evidence.
- ◆ NE is voluntary and confidential.
- ◆ The benefits of NE include helping to clarify, narrow or eliminate issues, identify areas of agreement, offer case-planning suggestions and, if requested by the parties, assist in settlement.
- ◆ The first three (3) hours of the NE session are free of charge.

For additional NE information, visit the Court's web site at www.lasuperiorcourt.org/adr

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION INFORMATION PACKAGE
 [CRC 3.221 Information about Alternative Dispute Resolution]

The plaintiff shall serve a copy of this Information Package on each defendant along with the complaint (Civil only).

What Is ADR:

Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) is the term used to describe all the other options available for settling a dispute which once had to be settled in court. ADR processes, such as arbitration, mediation, neutral evaluation (NE), and settlement conferences, are less formal than a court process and provide opportunities for parties to reach an agreement using a problem-solving approach.

There are many different kinds of ADR. All of them utilize a "neutral", an impartial person, to decide the case or help the parties reach an agreement.

Mediation:

In mediation, a neutral person called a "mediator" helps the parties try to reach a mutually acceptable resolution of the dispute. The mediator does not decide the dispute but helps the parties communicate so they can try to settle the dispute themselves. Mediation leaves control of the outcome with the parties.

Cases for Which Mediation May Be Appropriate

Mediation may be particularly useful when parties have a dispute between or among family members, neighbors, or business partners. Mediation is also effective when emotions are getting in the way of resolution. An effective mediator can hear the parties out and help them communicate with each other in an effective and nondestructive manner.

Cases for Which Mediation May Not Be Appropriate

Mediation may not be effective if one of the parties is unwilling to cooperate or compromise. Mediation also may not be effective if one of the parties has a significant advantage in power over the other. Therefore, it may not be a good choice if the parties have a history of abuse or victimization.

Arbitration:

In arbitration, a neutral person called an "arbitrator" hears arguments and evidence from each side and then decides the outcome of the dispute. Arbitration is less formal than a trial, and the rules of evidence are often relaxed. Arbitration may be either "binding" or "nonbinding." Binding arbitration means that the parties waive their right to a trial and agree to accept the arbitrator's decision as final. Nonbinding arbitration means that the parties are free to request a trial if they do not accept the arbitrator's decision.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Be Appropriate

Arbitration is best for cases where the parties want another person to decide the outcome of their dispute for them but would like to avoid the formality, time, and expense of a trial. It may also be appropriate for complex matters where the parties want a decision-maker who has training or experience in the subject matter of the dispute.

Cases for Which Arbitration May Not Be Appropriate

If parties want to retain control over how their dispute is resolved, arbitration, particularly binding arbitration, is not appropriate. In binding arbitration, the parties generally cannot appeal the arbitrator's award, even if it is not supported by the evidence or the law. Even in nonbinding arbitration, if a party requests a trial and does not receive a more favorable result at trial than in arbitration, there may be penalties.

Neutral Evaluation:

In neutral evaluation, each party gets a chance to present the case to a neutral person called an "evaluator." The evaluator then gives an opinion on the strengths and weaknesses of each party's evidence and arguments and about how the dispute could be resolved. The evaluator is often an expert in the subject matter of the dispute. Although the evaluator's opinion is not binding, the parties typically use it as a basis for trying to negotiate a resolution of the dispute.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Be Appropriate

Neutral evaluation may be most appropriate in cases in which there are technical issues that require special expertise to resolve or the only significant issue in the case is the amount of damages.

Cases for Which Neutral Evaluation May Not Be Appropriate

Neutral evaluation may not be appropriate when there are significant personal or emotional barriers to resolving the dispute.

Settlement Conferences:

Settlement conferences may be either mandatory or voluntary. In both types of settlement conferences, the parties and their attorneys meet with a judge or a neutral person called a "settlement officer" to discuss possible settlement of their dispute. The judge or settlement officer does not make a decision in the case but assists the parties in evaluating the strengths and weaknesses of the case and in negotiating a settlement. Settlement conferences are appropriate in any case where settlement is an option. Mandatory settlement conferences are often held close to the date a case is set for trial.
